Re: Complaint of Fred & Sandra Jonas and Mary Anaya

Dear Mr. Stein:

We find it incredible that you insist on being represented in a proceeding in New Mexico by an attorney who is not admitted to practice here. In order to practice law in New Mexico a lawyer must be admitted to practice in New Mexico. Representing a client in the course of a deposition and a disciplinary proceeding constitutes the practice of law.

This is so fundamental, we are incredulous that you question it.

Very truly yours,

Joel L. Widman
Deputy Disciplinary Counsel
